POSTPONEMENT OF DRAFT TO '41 SEEN POSSIBLE

Gen. Shedd's Statements
Handicap Conscript
Legislation

COMPROMISE MAY GAIN APPROVAL

Draft Foes Insist Voluntary Enlistment Be Tried First

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Administration strategists privately acknowledge today that there was a good chance the senate might reject immediate conscription in favor of a compromise program deferring
the start of compulsory service until January.

These leaders said that their drive
for enactment of the Burke-Wadsworth immediate conscription bill had run into difficulties because of the statement by Brig. Gen. William F. Shedd, assistant chief of staff,
that the army would be unable to absorb a full quota of conscripts
before December.

Aids Compromise Move
This army statement, they said,
had furnished ammunition to back-ers of the compromise measure offered by Senator Maloney (D., Conn.), who would register all men between 21 and 31 immediately but postpone the calling of conscripts
until 1941.

Unless senate sentiment shifts before a vote is reached on the Maloney compromise next week, leaders reported after a check-up of the measure was apt to win approval.

It was pointed out that the compromise, in providing for inauguration of conscription next January,
makes the start contingent on the army's failure to obtain enough men
by voluntary enlistment by that date. Foes of immediate conscription have argued that, given the opportunity, voluntary enlistments
would be numerous enough to make a draft unnecessary.

Seek Vote By Nightfall
In the house, meanwhile, Democratic leaders drove ahead in hopes of getting a final vote by nightfall
on senate-approved legislation authorizing the President to mobilize
the national guard and army reservists for a year's active service.

Leaders first faced the task, however, of defeating a Republican-
supported effort to limit the service
of guardsmen and militia to a restriction previously voted down by the senate.

Evidently anticipating ultimate
approval for the mobilization measure, the war department disclosed
yesterday that revised schedules had been prepared to have all guard
units—some 220,000 men—in active service by Jan. 1, 1941. If the law
passes, officers said, the first group
of 55,000 would be called Sept. 15.

The senate approved a proposal
for increasing the basic army pay from $21 to $30 a month, bringing
it into line with the navy scale.

The war department announced
placing of a contract for 700 training planes, and informed sources
said that the department had virtually overcome difficulties which had been holding up contracts on the 4200 warplanes provided for by congress in June.

Homes are Asked To Avoid Waste In Use of Water

An appeal to Salem residents to curtail their lawn and garden sprinkling as much as possible was made today by Service Director Charles Kennedy.

Although the increased usage
of water has not threatened the city supply, the service director pointed out that reserves
can not be as easily maintained.

Kennedy has appealed to residents to cut down on the lawn sprinkling in preference
to asking the shops to use less
later during the present dry spell.

In order to meet increased
demands for water in homes
and factories, service department workers in past months
have been improving the sources of supply and pumping facilities. As a result, the maximum production today has been boosted to an average of 1,350,000 gallons.

Ordinary pumping up until April seldom ran over one million gallons daily.

CROPS IN OHIO HIT BY DROUGHT

Soaking Downpour Needed to Make Up Rainfall Deficiencies

Rain fell sparingly in scattered sections of Ohio Wednesday, bringing slight relief to parched crops
suffering heavily from an extended dry spell.

Agronomists generally throughout the state stressed the need for a soaking downpour to make up deficiencies for July and the first half of August. Hardest hit were the western, central and southern districts.

In the central Ohio area, Dr. C. J.
Willard of Ohio State university
agronomy department described the current drought as the worst he had ever seen and said the crop loss was already so great that a heavy rain "wouldn't do much good."

Showers fell unevenly in the Columbus area yesterday but recorded only a trace at the downtown weather bureau. Only 49 of an inch of rain was measured in July, compared with 3.55 inches normal, and 10 of an inch fell in the first half of August, 1.41 behind normal.

Corn Suffering most Corn, Ohio's major crop, is suffering most from the dry weather, agricultural experts reported. Soybeans are turning brown and fruits
are feeling the lack of moisture.

An increase of chinch bugs and corn earworms was reported in the Cleveland area where 96 inches of rain in July was 2.49 below normal.

Dayton had 15 inches of rain yesterday, not enough to help crops.

Cincinnati was another point visited by yesterday's rain, but the weather bureau predicted severe damage to staple crops as well as soybeans, tobacco, hay and vegetables in the entire Ohio river valley. Yesterday's shower brought the August total to 4.3 of an inch,
July saw only 3.3 inches, 2.98 below
normal.

Less severely affected were the regions surrounding Toledo and Youngstown. Toledo's July rainfall totalled 3.29 inches and Youngstown had 2.98.

Horse Quadrille
On Winona Program
WINONA, Aug. 15.—Getting their idea for an unusual equestrian
show from old-fashioned square dances, four Winona couples will execute a quadrille on horseback at the annual Winona flax scutching
celebration here Friday and Saturday.

Appearing in the quadrille, which will be presented on both nights of the celebration, will be Mr. and Mrs.
Cecil Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. William Cope, Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn
and Mrs. Myron Whinnery and Donald Coppel.

They will ride through the various movements of the quadrille to music. The group has been training for the presentation under the direction of Lon Boring.

A trained horse, owned by J. E.
Sinclair of Cadiz, will give a performance Saturday morning, with James Pilmer of Kensington, veteran trainer, in charge.

Group of 16 Boy Scouts, headed by Commissioner Eddie Howell of Salem, will conduct the flag-raising at 10 a. m. Saturday. Ora Anderson, editor of Farm and Dairy, will speak during the morning session,
which will also include a partial flax scutching demonstration. The flax demonstration, from start to finish, will be given in the afternoon.

GREEK CRUISER IS SUNK BY SUB IN AEGEAN SEA

Athens Severs All Phone

ARMY, NAVY, AIR CHIEFS IN PARLEY

Ship at Anchor as Three Torpedoes Are Fired
By Submarine

(By Associated Press)
ATHENS, Aug. 15.—All telephonic
communication with Rome was severed today shortly after the government announced the sinking of the light cruiser Helle by an unidentified submarine.

The Helle, a 2,115-ton American-
built vessel, was torpedoed in Tinos
island harbor in the Aegean sea.
One petty officer was lost and 29
crew members were injured.

The crew attempted to run the ship aground, but the fuel oil escaping on the water caught fire and forced abandonment. The ship went down quickly.

War Leaders in Parley
Chiefs of the army, navy and air
force were summoned immediately,
after the sinking was announced,
for a conference with Premier Gen.
John Metaxas.

The cruiser was at anchor in the harbor, about 100 miles southeast of Athens, where she had gone to participate in a religious celebration.

The official Greek version of the sinking said three torpedoes were fired without warning. One hit the cruiser.

The cruiser's nationality was plainly marked, an official announcement said, and a mistake in identity would have been virtually impossible.

The torpedoing occurred as Greek and Italian relations became increasingly tense because of the resurgent Italian press campaign charging Greece was violating her neutrality by being too friendly with Britain.

Strict censorship was applied to outgoing telephone calls.

Hit Greek "Oppression"

One of the Italian charges in the strengthening press campaign has been that the British Mediterranean
fleet was using the Greek island
harbor as a base.

(Italian newspapers continued to dwell on alleged Greek "oppression" of Albanian minorities. Fascist
Editor Virgilio Gayda, in Il Giornale D'Italia, declared yesterday the Greeks were "vassals" of England
in a vast plot against Italian-an-nexed Albania, Italy and the whole Balkan area.)

MAKE PROGRESS ON FAIR PLANS

Workmen Dress Up Buildings For Annual Exposition

LISBON, Aug. 15.—With the 95th
annual exposition of the Colum-biana County Agricultural society
less than a month away, workmen
are busily engaged in repairing and painting buildings and fences and getting the grounds in readiness for the big event.

The fair will open on Tuesday,
Sept. 10, with Wednesday and Thursday as the "big days".

Entries for the fair will be received on and after Sept. 1, J. I.
Howard Sinclair, of Hanoverton,
secretary, announced today as he urged exhibitors to make their entries, if possible, before the first day of the fair. All entries excepting show horses, stock and poultry will close at 5 p. m. Sept. 10. The latter classes will close on Sept. 5
at 7 p. m.

Attractions each day will include
horse pulling contests in the morning, and good racing programs during the afternoon, while the night
will open each evening with a livestock parade and machinery exhibit. A special attraction between races in the afternoon and in the evening will be the Klein shows.

The grand finale each evening
will be a display of fireworks.

As usual, keen competition will be noted in the exhibits of stock
and farm produce, with granges,
4-H clubs and individuals vying for honors in the various divisions
and classifications, for premiums of upwards of $4,000.

ALLIANCE, Aug. 15.—As the first
step in a building program that will triple the facilities of the Tay-lorcraft Aviation Corp., contract
was let today to Paul A. Kintz, Alliance contractor, for a hangar and experimental laboratory.

The structure, with 8,000 square feet of floor space, will be used chiefly to house completed airplanes.

Top—An ordinary truck is rigged up to simulate a tank in order to meet the needs of the 26th division, Massachusetts national guard, taking part in the war maneuvers in upper New York state.
Below—Warplanes of the national guard attack a motorized column of the "enemy" forces during the New York army games. The soldiers, who scattered from their trucks and combat cars when the planes roared over, seek to "bring down" one of the strafers. The army used hundreds of civilian observers to report plane movements to GHQ.

British Retreat, Battle Continues

CAIRO, Egypt, Aug. 15.—British troops in their invaded Somaliland protectorate have fallen back before Italian forces estimated at
"the greater part of two divisions,"
but the battle is continuing, the British command announced today.

The communique declared that the Italians, reinforced by fresh troops, launched a violent attack
yesterday and, after several hours
of fighting in which they suffered severe losses, compelled the British to retreat.

ROME, Aug. 15.—Italian troops
are locked with the British in British Somaliland in a battle that has been under way for four days,
the Italian high command announced today.

The battle is raging for the port of Berbera, which the British are defending against Italian assault.
Today's communique announced
that the Italians had taken prisoners with arms.

Veterans of 332nd Will Hold Reunion

Columbiana and Mahoning county boys of The 332nd Infantry are planning their 19th annual reunion,
to be held at Ohio hotel, Youngstown, Aug. 31 and Sept. 1.

Registration will be from 11 a. m.
to 8 p. m. on Aug. 31, and dinner
at 6:30 p. m.

Memorial services will be held at 10 a. m. Sunday, followed immediately by the business meeting and election of officers.

Two Boys Are Held In Liquor Seizure

EAST LIVERPOOL, Aug. 15.—
Federal agents arrested two brothers, 18 and 14, here yesterday after seizure of an automobile containing

GOLF SESSION WINNERS LISTED

Players From Wide Area
Compete In Clam
Bake Program

Golfers from 15 cities were among 350 men who attended the Salem
Golf club's 13th annual clam bake yesterday.

Approximately 120 golfers played
the hilly nine-hole course during the day, 90 of whom participated in a blind bogey tournament.

Atty. Lozier Caplan of Salem, A.
E. Blahy of Newton Falls and J.
Tomsic of Lorain tied for first in the tournament. Second place was shared by H. J. Lindell of East Liverpool, Dr. W. G. Siddall of Alliance
and Dr. L. W. King, Dr. R. T. Holzbach, J. M. McCready and F. E.
Cope of Salem.

Other winners in the blind bogey
tournament included Dr. M. M.
Sandrock, Dr. Richard Harwood,
Dr. F. R. Crowe, H. E. Haymes
and Ed Sheen.

Prizes for low gross scores were won by S. P. Ker of Youngstown
and Vince Keller of Youngstown.
Ker shot an 80 and Keller a 79.

An award for scoring an eagle was won by R. Smith of Youngstown, who carded a three on the par
five No. 3 hole. N. C. Hunt of Salem, who birdied the par four No. 1
hole, was also a prize winner.

A lunch was served to club members and guests at noon followed by the afternoon's golf program
and a clam bake and chicken dinner in the evening.

Guests were present from Salem,
Cleveland, Youngstown, Detroit,
East Liverpool, Warren, Euclid, Lorain, Newton Falls, Niles, Lisbon, Canton, Leetonia, Columbiana and Athens, Ga.

Army Plane Falls,
Two Fliers Killed

POTTERY HEADS STUDY REQUEST

Manufacturers, at Parley, Draft
Counter Demands to Employes;
Conference Stated Aug. 27

EAST LIVERPOOL, Aug. 15.—The United States Potters' association,
meeting at the Congress Lake Country club near Canton, today
drafted counter demands to be submitted to the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, which recently asked a 20 per cent wage increase for 16,000 members.

The proposals will be considered
at a joint conference at Atlantic City, Aug. 27, when the employes
will be represented by their labor
committee, headed by Joseph M.
Weiss of Newell, W. Va.

The brotherhood, which will seek a two-year agreement, also
has asked a closed shop, checkoff system, two weeks' vacation with pay for employed members, restoration of the china workers' pay
cut and stamping of the union
label on all ware.

The present agreement expires
Sept. 30.

Highway Sprayed With Pop Bottles

LISBON, Aug. 15.—The driver of a soft drink truck caused the state highway department a few hours'
trouble yesterday afternoon.

Empty bottles bounced from the truck, speeding toward Columbiana on Route 164. Broken glass and even cases were strewn along a two-mile stretch. State highway workers had to sweep the glass from the highway because the driver, apparently unaware of what had happened, continued on his way.

Wave on Wave, Bombers Blast Entire Coast

British Airmen, In Turn, Rain Bombs On French Coast, With German "Jumping-Off" Places As Targets

(By Associated Press.)
Sky-clouding waves of Nazi warplanes, estimated at upward of 1,000 with a single armada flying in a 30-mile-wide formation, stormed the British isles today in a maelstrom of fierce, new raids.

It apparently was the biggest mass onslaught since
Hitler turned on the full violence of his aerial might a week ago today.

The British government said 55 Nazi raiders were destroyed up to five o'clock this afternoon (11 a. m., EST).
Loss of seven British fighter planes was acknowledged.

Droning over one area of the southeast coast came groups estimated to total 500 planes. Other waves of almost equal strength were reported striking up and down the coast
from the Thames estuary to Land's End.

It was believed possible that the terrific assault signalled the opening gun of the long-threatened
attempt to invade England.

Today, according to London
sources, was "der tag" set by Hitler
for the conquest of England.

Spread-eagling the island kingdom, on a schedule that read like a tourist's itinerary, the Nazi raiders struck at the great trans-Atlantic
shipping port of Southampton, Newcastle, Aberdeen, Scotland, the huge Vickers Armstrong armament
works at Hebburn, the Hawkinge airport 10 miles west of Dover and other vital military centers.

Use Big Bombers
The use of the huge Dornier
bombers indicated that the Germans were either going "all out" to make good their threat of blasting England to ruins, or that they were forced to draw on their reserves as a result of RAF raids last night on Nazi bases along the channel.

Berlin dispatchers said the droves
of swastika-marked raiders smashed
through "curtains of steel" thrown up by British anti-aircraft guns at Dover—the channel "gateway" for a possible invasion attempt—and sped on inland to bomb other objectives.

Great fires and explosions were reported set off in a thrust into Northumberland.

The British air ministry, drawing
a revised picture of the foray,
admitted there were "some casualties," but insisted that the wave-
on-wave assaults were "unsucces-
ful" in attacks on RAF airbases.

From midnight to dawn of the day
which British spokesmen said German sources had "fixed" for the arrival of Adolf Hitler in London, British airmen rained bombs on the French coast in vivid flashes which could be seen from the English shore.

Accompanied by a wailing of sirens heard across the channel, 100
of these flashes were observed from one point alone on the British coast.

While Aug. 15 dawned without the launching of the long-expected
blitzkrieg, it was assumed the British were striking at all the possible gathering places for the troops, tanks, guns, boats and machines which Hitler is planning to use for the supreme attempt.

Mountain Floods Leave Many Dead

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 15.—
Mountain and hill-country streams
which gushed out of their banks in

was well advanced in repair of highways, railroads, and telephone and telegraph lines but areas along
the fall line were menaced by rising waters that threatened to spread over the lower sections.

City Manager P. M. Burdette of Asheville said this city's 51,000 inhabitants probably would be spared
any serious inconvenience through lack of water if work crews completed, as expected, repairs of main pipe lines feeding two city reservoirs.

MAKE-BELIEVE ARMAMENT

Lack of tanks, guns, armored cars and other war impediments is pathetic but not disgraceful. The nation gives its sympathy to soldiers brushing up on fighting tactics with gaspige guns, ordinary trucks and plenty of imagination, but not its apology. Americans honestly believed war had been outlawed.

They don't distrust ability of its manpower to turn this make-believe armament to good account. While it is unfortunate that many men sacrificing time and effort for national defense must do their training with make-believe weapons, the fact remains that all training for war is a process of make-believe. The hits, misses, casualties and problems all are imaginary. Even the navy, whose war games come closer to the real thing than the army's, must stop far short of reality.

Main thing in training for war is coordination of attack. The current tendency is to talk of this as though Germans had discovered it. Fact of the matter is, if military historians are correct, nearly every battle which has been lost was lost due to faulty coordination. Given approximate equality of weapons, every battle thereafter is decided by the quality of generalship.

The manpower being prepared for the defense of the United States is equal or superior to that of any other nation. Forging it into an effective military organization is largely a matter of developing familiarity with problems of rapid troop movements in mechanized warfare. Absence of real weapons during training is by no means an insuperable handicap. The highly efficient German army trained with make-believe weapons.

BRITAIN SETTLES INDIAN PROBLEM

Few Americans have tried to settle Great Britain's India problems for her; they had no time left over from the Irish problem.

Consequently, reading that London now offers India "free and equal partnership" after the war if India's leaders will commit their country to a more active part in the fighting, would-be colonial experts are caught short. On the face of it, the proposition looks like an act of last-minute desperation which would shatter domestic morale if it failed; certainly it is beneath the accustomed dignity of His Majesty's government to seem to be talking to India as a political equal. But then, these aren't the right kind of times for dignity. Survival is rarely a dignified procedure anyway.

It isn't Britain alone which is concerned with survival. India knows about Italy's dream of becoming the defender of Islam, about Japan preparing to seize French Indo-China, about threats to close the Mediterranean to British shipping, about Italian preparations to establish aerial blockade in the Gulf of Aden. India's vast resources and teeming population would be rich prizes for an exploiter who might be far harder to bear than the British, now offering equal partnership in the British commonwealth if they win the war. Like the Irish, who shortly may be involuntary hosts of Germans, Indians are face to face with the grim thought there might be worse fates than life in the shadow of the Union Jack after all.

PUT DOWN THE BLACKJACK, BOYS

When the author of a law tells what it means, his word's final. Sen. Hatch of New Mexico says his law makes distribution of Domestic campaign booklets illegal. Previously, he had said his law makes division of campaign funds among various committees to evade the $3,000,000 maximum illegal.

Sen. Hatch thinks the Democrats should ditch their famous campaign books and stay within the spirit as well as the letter of the laws which bear his name. Citizens generally will agree. Not being Philadelphia lawyers they don't pretend to be able to understand what can and can't be done with laws, but they do understand that the two Hatch laws were an attempt to make politics a little cleaner.

Because they understand, also, that soliciting advertising from suckers for a campaign book which no one ever looks at is nothing but a legalistic work-out on aforesaid suckers with a blackjack, they would be deeply impressed if Democrats would do what Sen. Hatch, who happens to be one of them, suggests they should do. They don't think for a minute politicians are going to turn lily-white but neither do they think politicians would be smart to proclaim to the world they have nothing but scorn for lily-whiteness.

JUNIOR, THE HARDY PERENNIAL

Gene Tunney, who runs a one-man rebellion against American Youth Congress, is coming out with a new organization—National Foundation for American Youth. It will take in Young Republicans, Young Democrats, Young Thistles and Thistles.

It will be, of course, pro-American, which will be refreshingly different from some of the ones which have been ground by American Youth Congress. Taking a page from the experience of European youth movements, it also will be decentralized. The future of America rests in the hands of youth; that's the general idea. No argument on that score. Youth should be handicapped as little as possible, lest its job become harder.

Everybody hopes Mr. Tunney makes a go of this project. Part of their hoping can be traced to a feeling that it's something he does because he started it a long time ago and hates to throw in the sponge. The grim fact is that Mr. Tunney, born May 25, 1898, has no more business in a youth movement than Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, for instance. What the youth of America needs and what it wants is a darned good letting alone by people who should be promoting middle-age movements.

An expert observer of foreign affairs is a fellow who can say "I don't know" in such manner as to escape "immediate detection."

THIRTY YEARS AGO

(Issue of August 15, 1910)

After 17 years of successful business in this city, O. J. Astry has sold his real estate and insurance business to B. F. Stackhouse of near Lisbon. The Astry business is one of the oldest in the city, started 17 years ago by Mr. Astry and Charles McMillan. Mr. Astry has been sole owner for the past nine years.

Mr. Astry will locate in Youngstown, where he has formed a partnership with Karl Webster, also formerly of Salem, where they will operate a general real estate and fire insurance business. They will handle the business of the nine leading Ohio mutual insurance companies, among which is the Ohio Mutual of this city.

The Leetonia board of education has elected Prof. J. M. May of Kinsman superintendent of schools to succeed Prof. John W. Moore, who resigned to accept a position in the Youngstown schools. Prof. May, chosen from 22 applicants, is married and has two children. He is about 35 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Pottorff of W. Main st. left Saturday for a two weeks vacation which they will spend in Pittsburgh.

Miss Estelle Meyerhofer returned to her home on McKinley ave. Friday evening. She spent the past week with friends at "Buttonwoods" near Darlington, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Goshen of E. Seventh st. went to Pittsburgh Saturday where they will visit their sons, Arthur and Harry, and daughter, Louise, for a week.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

(Issue of August 15, 1920)

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wright and son Rhul motored to Ravenna Sunday where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ingram.

According to reports the measles epidemic at the German home on the Newgarden road is under control and the children are all out of bed. It is reported that 13 of the children were ill. There are 27 children in the home.

Mrs. Laura Garside, Mrs. Albert Hayes and Miss Martha Justice of Salem, representing the Humane society of this city, were before the county commissioners Monday asking an increased appropriation from the county funds for the use of the society. Heretofore the county has been giving $500 a year. The society wants to install two drinking places for horses and other animals on the streets of this city at a cost of about $600 and also more educational work than in the past.

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson of this city, and Chester Stiffler, also of Salem, was solemnized at the residence of Rev. G. M. Whitenack, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, at noon Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson, parents of the bride, entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of the couple.

Honoring their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Getz, who returned from a wedding trip Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. James Getz entertained 25 guests at their home on Water st. Saturday evening at dinner. The home was decorated in blue and white. The honor guests received a number of gifts. Mr. Getz is employed by the Mullins Body corp.

THE STARS SAY:

For Friday, August 16

THE ASTRAL influences bearing on the affairs of this day must be read as dubious, doubtful and radical, with the prospect of strange situations to be unraveled by discretion, sound judgment and probably by the wise counsel of less disturbed and confused heads. Papers, all sorts of writings, of a business as well as intellectual or legal nature, should be handled with utmost discretion. Journeys and change as well as there are adverse signs hinting of loss, fraud, duplicity and intrigue.

Those whose birthday it is may find themselves involved in a year in which perplexities and problems call for much calm discretion, sagacity and friendly suggestion, since there are hints of loss, fraud, mis-constructions, avarice, writings, documents or legal matters, caused by carelessness. It would be well to make no radical change although there will be a strongly undermining and uprooting force inciting to just such critical venture.

A child born on this day should be shrewd, clever, versatile and full of new notions and ideals, perhaps erratic and fond of change. Intelligent thought should be given to its rearing and education.

MOVIES HELP HIGHWAY

COLUMBUS, Aug. 14.—Free tickets to the movies are helping to beautify Ohio's highways.

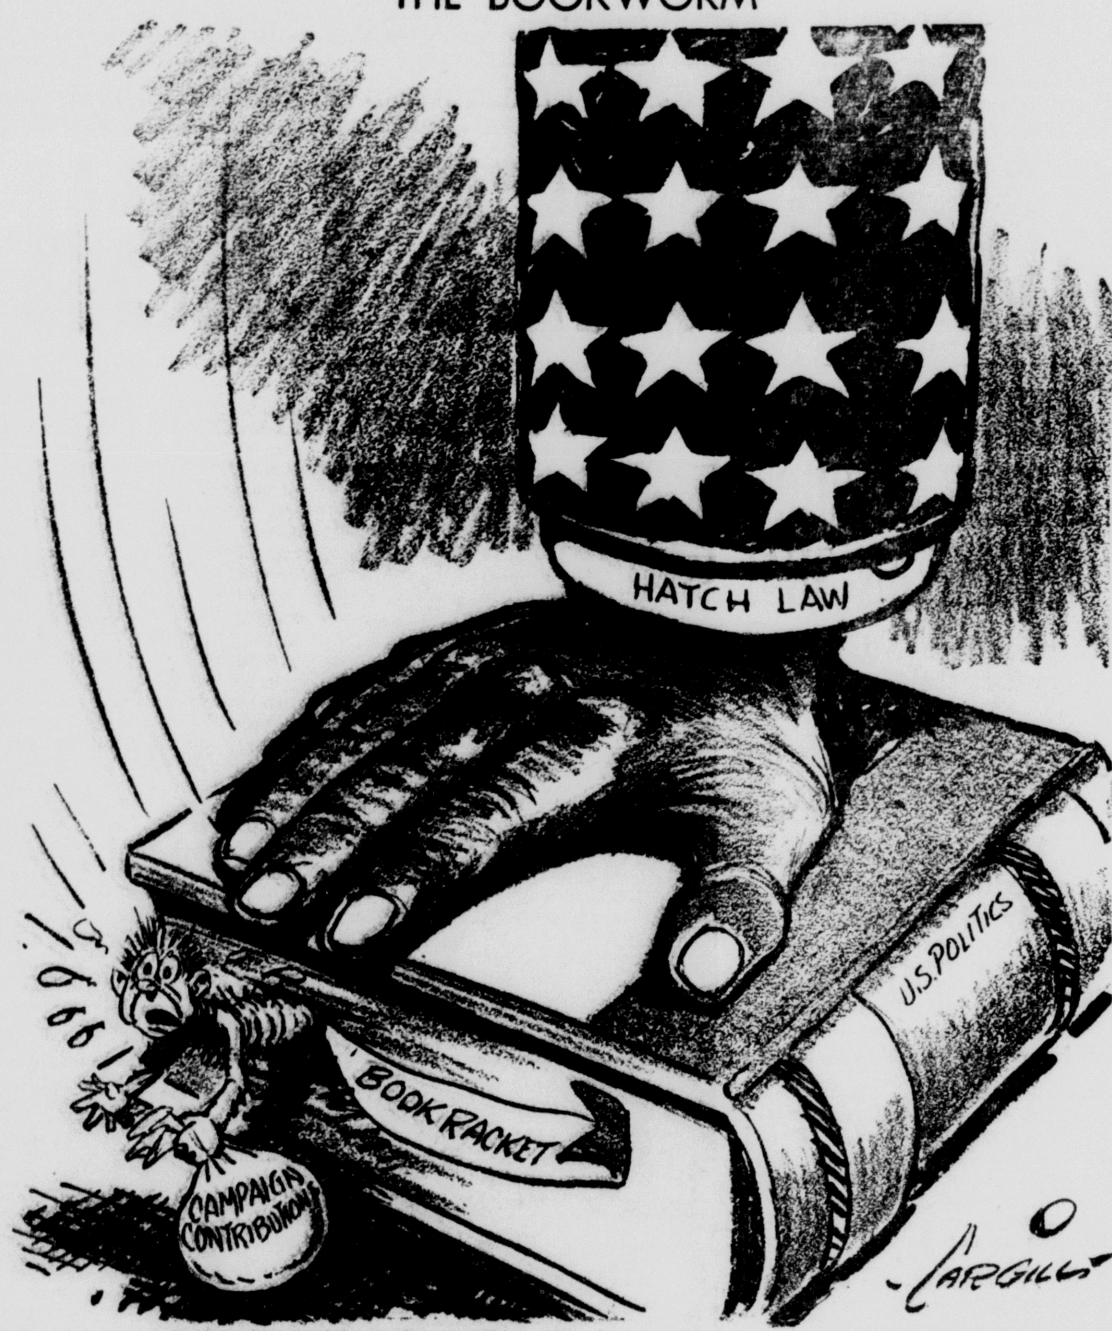

Under state highway department sponsorship, 10 Columbus theaters are granting free admittance to children under 17 in exchange for a pint of holly-hock seeds. These, and other seeds deposited in street corner barrels, are being planted along central Ohio roadides.

Landscape Architect D. D. Dupre said the holly-hock plantings were the latest development in the department's six year program of roadside beautification.

Since 1934, he said, approximately 250 roadside parks, with clean water and picnic facilities have been built, with many more now under construction. In addition, trees, grass and shrubs have been placed along both new and old roads, to control erosion and remove unsightly barren plots. Roadside improvement, Dupre said, is now a part of nearly all construction projects sold by the highway department.

The cost Dupre estimated at approximately $100,000 a year, or two per cent of the department's total expenditures. Of this, about $85,000 is directed specifically toward erosion control, with the remaining $15,000 set aside for general planting and beautification.

THE BOOKWORM

470 Persons In 3 Counties Get Social Security Checks

More than 470 persons in the three counties served by Youngstown field office of the social security board are now receiving monthly checks under the old-age and survivors insurance plan which went into operation Jan. 1.

Figures relating to the first six months of operation of the plan were released today by Glenn H. Pittenger, manager of the social security board office in Youngstown. His report is based only on claims which actually have been approved and notices of awards sent to the claimants. Many claims were pending at the end of June, when the totals were compiled, Pittenger said.

Now receiving monthly checks are workers who have retired after employment in jobs covered by the Social Security Act, wives over 65 who are married to and living with husbands of this group; widows who are over 65 and who were married to insured workers at the time of the death of the latter, widows with children under 18 at the time of the worker's death, also dependent aged parents of insured workers who had neither widow nor child eligible for the monthly checks at the time of the worker's death.

Reporting the figures for the area served by the Youngstown field office, Pittenger showed the number of persons in each group now receiving checks, also the total amount of the payments and the average in each case. The report, covering awards from Jan. 1 to June 30 of this year, follows:

Type of Beneficiary	Number of Persons Receiving Checks	Total Payments Each Month	Average of Each Month
Old-age workers	281	$6,782.81	$24.14
Wives over 65	55	723.89	13.16
Workers children	23	249.02	10.83
Widows with insured children; also widows over 65	34	655.80	19.29
Insured children of deceased workers	77	923.68	11.98
Totals	470	$9,335.20	$15.88

EAST GOSHEN

Owing to the Ohio Yearly Meeting of Friends which convenes at Damascus next week, there will be no prayer meeting at the East Goshen Friends church Thursday evening (Aug. 22).

Rev. Murray Ament of Alliance will preach Sunday morning and the young people of the church will have charge of the Sunday evening service.

Mr. and Mrs. Lora Malmesberry visited the Ohio Caverns, the Seven Caves and other points of interest in southern Ohio over the weekend.

Miss Lorraine Mottishaw of Youngstown and Mr. and Mrs. Opal Bonza of Alliance called on friends here recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken McPadden and two children of Parma spent Friday with Mrs. Nora Perkins.

Visit In New York

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lodge left Monday for New York City where they will attend the Neon sign convention. They will also attend the World's Fair there and visit other points of interest in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Knisely of Carrollton and Mrs. Amy Bradt and family of North Benjen were recent guests of U. G. Shewell.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wise and Mrs. Albert Lodge, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walpert of Sebring visited Mr. and Mrs. William Walpert of Washingtonville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Baird and daughter Zelma and son Rolland are visiting relatives in Akron this week.

Mrs. Cora Kibler of Hanoverton

In addition to these monthly payments, there were 87 payments to defray funeral expenses of insured workers who died without leaving a survivor entitled to monthly payments. The total of these payments was $13,599.36, the average being $156.31.

Of these 281 workers over 65 there were 55 who had wives over 65 and who thus were eligible for monthly checks. The payments to these families averaged $34.48 a month.

Widows who had children covered by the Social Security Act averaged a fraction over two children for each family. Payments to these families averaged $44.18 a month. This is on the basis of $19.37 for the widow and $11.85 for each child, as shown by the averages.

When these children reach 16 they are dropped from the pay lists unless they remain in school, in which case they receive checks until they are 18. The widow continues to receive her monthly check until the youngest child is 16, or 18 if in school, and then is dropped from the roll until she reaches age 65. At that time she again receives her monthly checks unless she remarries or is employed in a job covered by the Social Security Act.

Commenting on the figures made public by his office, Pittenger said: "As estimated, the number of persons receiving monthly payments during the early months of operation of this plan is relatively small. However, these payments are cumulative and will increase from month to month. In addition to the claims certified there were many which were pending at the end of June. This is because time is required to obtain proofs of birth, proofs of marriage and other information which we must have before payments can begin."

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

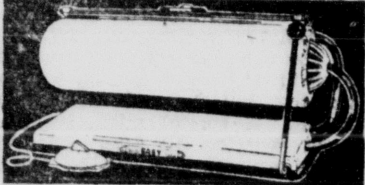

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Care Of Rheumatic Heart

Four Heart Disease Causes Are Discussed

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

THE LATE Dr. Richard C. Cabot, one of the greatest American clinicians, after an elaborate study of hospital records pointed out that there are four great common causes of heart disease:

(1) Rheumatic fever; (2) arterial degeneration of middle age; (3) syphilis, and (4) thyroid disease. The last two are not very frequent. Rheumatic fever in the young and arterial change in the middle-aged account for 90 per cent of heart disease.

Today and tomorrow my friend, Dr. Don Carlos Peete, of Kansas City, will discuss these two forms. The association of rheumatic fever or acute articular rheumatism with the development of heart disease.

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

This disease has long been recognized. It has likewise been observed for many years that chorea, commonly termed "St. Vitus Dance," is frequently a forerunner of heart disease. Rheumatic fever should not be confused with the lay term of "rheumatism," which is an all-inclusive term, including all types of pains in the extremities.

General Fee This disease is no respecter of age, sex or race. It is seen more commonly for the first time between the ages of five and twelve years. The younger individuals are likely to have mild rheumatic joint involvement and more severe heart complications, while adults suffer greater joint involvement and lesser cardiac damage.

The child may have only a mild fever, occasional nose bleed with pains in the extremities which may be passed off as growing pains. He may be ill from the onset with fever, tender, swollen joints, sweats and rapid pulse.

Often Mild The most serious permanent effect of rheumatic fever is the damage to the heart.

During the course of infection, all of the structures of the heart are involved, including the valves, the heart muscle, and the covering or pericardium. Many of these cases are mild and with proper rest and care may escape permanent damage. This type of infection may remain active for months and during that time certain structures may be permanently damaged, the most common being the damage to the valves of the heart.

The individual who has rheumatic heart disease should seek the advice of his physician concerning his diet, rest, and the amount of physical strain he is to be permitted. He should strive to arrange his scheme of living so that he can reduce as much as possible the physical and mental strain upon the heart. Life can be extended to beyond the normal expectancy in a large percentage of these cases, if an intelligent outlook with co-operation between patient and physician is maintained.

Improving diet by adding milk, eggs, fresh meat, green vegetables, and either tomato juice or citrus fruits daily, supplementing the diet with cod liver oil. Avoid exposure to cold, damp weather by dressing warmly. These children should not be sent to open air schools.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. Clendening has seven pamphlets which can be obtained by readers. Each pamphlet sells for 10 cents. For any one pamphlet desired, send 10 cents in coin, and a self-addressed envelope stamped with a three-cent stamp, to Dr. Logan Clendening, 238 E. 45th st., New York. The pamphlets are: "Three Weeks' Reducing Diet," "Indigestion and Constipation," "Reducing and Gaining," "Infant Feeding," "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes," "Feminine Hygiene," and "The Care of the Hair and Skin."

Carol Landis and John Hubbard in a scene from the comedy "Turnabout", with Adolphe Menjou and Donald Meek, at the State Friday and Saturday.

Thorne Smith's hilarious novel, "Turnabout," becomes the screen's best recent comedy with Carol Landis, John Hubbard, Adolphe Menjou and his wife, Verree Teasdale, Mary Astor, Donald Meek, Franklin Pangborn and other well known players in the cast. The picture shows at the State theatre Friday and Saturday.

A young married couple, bored with their lot, rashly make a wish to exchange places. The fates hear their wish and lo and behold! they have exchanged jobs, places and personalities.

The author of the famous "Topper" series turns in a winner again in the story of a wife who stays home while hubby goes to the office until they exchange places.

Then wifey prances off to work daily while hubby enjoys the peace and quiet of their home. Shapely Miss Landis steps into the oversize shoes of her husband and experiments with problems faced by the male portion of humanity. Six-foot city matron, fluttering about cocktail parties while his wife wears the pants—literally.

At the State tonight only is "We Who Are Young," with Lana Turner and John Shelton.

Friday and Saturday the Grand will feature "The Ranger and the Lady," with Roy Rogers, George Hayes and Jacqueline Wells.

Freighter Tracked By "Mystery Ship"
NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—The Norwegian freighter Thermopylae, 6,655 tons, radioed today that she was being "tracked by a mystery ship" at a position well within the neutrality zone set up by the 21 American republics.

The ship's first message intercepted by Mackay radio indicated a submarine attack. Later the ship said "no distress but please inform my position."

Coast guard officials began an investigation when they figured the ship was about 450 miles east of New York.

The Thermopylae traded between New York, Pacific coast ports and the Far East before the war.

"APPLE A DAY KEEPS DOCTOR AWAY"
"But I Could Hardly Eat An Apple Before Taking Bardex Tonic," Says Niles Lady

"Even if it's true that an apple a day keeps the doctor away, I've seen times that I couldn't hardly eat even an apple," said Mrs. Mamie Anderson of Niles, Ohio. "I had been constipated so long that a number of ailments resulted which had long since taken all pleasure out of eating. In fact, I was in such general bad shape that a complete breakdown often appeared to be just around the corner. Half the time I couldn't keep food on my stomach and at other times the gas would press against my heart so badly that I was scared to death. I'd get dizzy spells and bilious and spots would float in front of my eyes when I tried to read the paper. I'd get pains in the top of my head and along my arms and shoulders so badly that I'd often have to go to bed for hours. Colds would set in easily and I'd arise mornings with mucus in my mouth, throat and head that made me feel miserable. For awhile the family doctor said I had symptoms of bronchial trouble."

"So many local women have been praising Bardex Tonic and because a lot of them seemed to be having similar troubles I tried it. It gave me such a gratifying constipation relief that we bought the full 6 bottle course. Before I completed it, all the results of my constipation were so much relieved that I was a happy woman indeed. One by one the aches and pains and dizziness all went away and my stomach had a restful clean feeling of returning health. I felt so much stronger that I was able to get rid of that persistent cold and for the first time in months my head felt clear. I've got a much better appetite and in the last week I've already gained several pounds."

Note Mrs. Anderson's reference to the laxative aid of the Famous Bardex Tonic, with alkalines, in common cold conditions.

Even the blood cells may be affected with poisonous waste matters accumulated by delayed elimination. Constipation is the beginning of most of these poisonous wastes and Bardex Tonic aims right at this beginning and relieves constipation quickly, gently and surely. Thus, an ounce of prevention and you may not need that pound of cure.

Programs for Fall Listed By Mothers

A program based on individual problems in child care and training will be studied by the Progressive Mothers circle at meetings next season, opening Tuesday evening, Sept. 10.

Programs outlining the topics to be discussed and listing several meetings which will feature guest speakers, including physicians and entertainment were presented members at the annual picnic last night in Centennial park.

Husbands and children of the members were guests at the affair. Places were arranged at the tables for 50.

The first meeting of the new season will be held at the home of Mrs. Richard Wilson on Maple st. The topic, "Obedience and Discipline" will be in charge of the hostess and Mrs. Galen Weaver.

Nurses Are Honored At Corn Roast

Miss Virginia Rupert, tuberculosis supervisor; Miss Leila Faloon, day supervisor; and Miss Emily Lotney, instructor of nurses, were honored by Salem City hospital staff associates last evening at a corn roast at the Nurses' home on E. State st.

Miss Rupert of Columbiana will leave next Tuesday for Detroit to accept a position in a hospital there. Miss Leila Faloon, fiancée of Louis Weirick, will be married on Sept. 2, and Miss Lotney will return to her former home, Cleveland, on Sept. 1.

The bride-elect was presented a shower of miscellaneous gifts; Miss Rupert, a handkerchief shower, and Miss Lotney, a gift by Miss Esther Wilson, Salem City hospital superintendent, and her staff.

The corn roast, enjoyed on the lawn outdoors, was followed by cards.

Mrs. Percy Dilworth Club Hostess

Mrs. Carl Hoopes and Miss Mary Kaminsky were guests of the Vernal Grove Homemakers' club at a meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Percy Dilworth on the New-garden rd.

Members made arrangements for a picnic for the club group and families Saturday, Aug. 24, in Whinery's pavilion at Lake Guilford.

Several interesting readings were given by members. A social hour was enjoyed, featuring lunch served by the hostess and her associate, Mrs. Hoopes.

The next meeting will be held Sept. 11 at the home of Mrs. Eldon Whinery, Guilford lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Coppock Visit In Winona

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Coppock, whose wedding was an event of Aug. 5, have returned to the home of his father, Rolland Coppock, in Winona, for a visit before going to Coudersport to make their home. Mrs. Coppock was formerly Miss Caroline Cameron.

The couple was honored at a reception and shower given following a supper Tuesday evening at the Methodist church.

Approximately 45 relatives and friends attended the supper at the church going afterward to the home of Mr. Coppock's father for music and an informal evening.

Guests included Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Stamp and daughter Jane and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Stamp of Alliance; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stamp of Sebring; Miss Esther Binsley of Lisbon; and others from Damascus, Salem and Winona.

Sub-Deb Club Girls Are Entertained

Sub-Deb club girls were entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Donna Haezly, 6 Union ave., enjoying games and a lunch after the business meeting.

The table was attractive with crystal appointments.

The meeting Aug. 28 will be held at the home of Miss Ethel Lozier, Goshen rd.

Stoudt Family Will Hold Reunion

"RED" CHARGES BRING DENIALS

Film Figures Assail Testimony of Former Communist Organizer

(By Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 15.—In terms of resentment and disgust, Hollywood movie personalities deny they are members of the Communist party or financial supporters thereof as charged in a transcript of county grand jury testimony.

The testimony was that of John Lewis Leech of Portland, Oregon, former Los Angeles house painter, Communist organizer and relief client.

Of the many Hollywoodites Leech named, immediate denials came from the following who could be reached, or their spokesmen: Fredric March, Francis Lederer, Jean Muir, Humphrey Bogart, Lionel Stander, James Cagney and Writer Sam Ornitz.

Some of those accused deprecatingly mentioned District Attorney Burton Fitts' current campaign for re-election.

Leech testified in an inquiry that resulted in murder indictments last week against five men accused of complicity in a waterfront killing five years ago in a reported union dispute.

So far, there has been no official explanation of any connection between the Hollywood "Red" inquiry and the killing.

Leech became involved in various difficulties over his testimony at the Harry Bridges deportation hearing at San Francisco last summer before Dean Landis of the Harvard law school.

Actor March last night said that so far as he was concerned "Leech is an unmitigated liar" and that he would like to meet Leech "face to face and call him a liar."

"I have never knowingly contributed a single penny to the Communist or any other un-American cause," March said.

Writer Ornitz said "I have been consistently attacking District Attorney Burton Fitts on the basis that he is a bad influence for the community, for the home and in general."

"It is said," Ornitz continued, "that Mr. Fitts elected to prey upon and slander innocent people just before the primary election because they oppose him."

"Just Campaign Material"

Actor Stander reiterated that he never was a Communist party member and declared he is "a real true American favoring democracy."

Stander said the inquiry is "just campaign material for Mr. Fitts, who is using big Hollywood names for his own benefit."

In the absence of Cagney on a New England motor tour, his brother-business manager, William, asserted "he is not a Communist, never has been a Communist and never will be."

At Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Lederer said "I am not a Communist and have never been one. I am violently opposed to Communism and everything it stands for."

Representing Miss Muir, Beauvais Fox said at Schenectady, N. Y., where she is to appear on the stage next week that she told me to say this (the Leech reference to her) is wholly false."

Condition Fair

SEBRING, Aug. 15.—Miss Dolly Yeagley, 25, of Sebring, was reported in fair condition at Alliance City hospital today. She suffered a fractured kneecap and possible internal injuries when the auto in which she was riding Tuesday night was involved in a collision on the Alliance-Sebring road.

Marshall Joins In Wife's Death Probe; Scoffs at Suicide

CLEVELAND, Aug. 15.—While U. S. Marshal Benjamin Moeze of Nome, Alaska, sped toward Cleveland today to join the investigation of his wife's mysterious death in Lake Erie, Federal Bureau of Investigation agents said they would ask his permission to exhume her body for post-mortem examination.

The body of the 53-year-old former nurse washed ashore at Geneva-on-the-Lake July 31 but was not identified until after officers of the steamship Seandbee, which she boarded July 29 for a trip to Buffalo, reported her missing Tuesday.

Frank E. Elliott of Cleveland, a brother, established identification from clothing and jewelry taken from the body before burial in Ashtabula county.

"There is no question of suicide as she was not of that temperament," Moeze said at Seattle, where he arrived last weekend after taking federal prisoners to Portland, Ore.

"I feel certain she was slain. I can't understand how a passenger could drop out of sight on a steamer and not be missed until two weeks later."

"All the circumstances as reported to me sound highly fantastic and I intend to get to the very bottom of the case."

The Cleveland and Buffalo Transit Co., owner of the Seandbee, said Mrs. Moeze's upper deck stateroom had not been assigned to another passenger on two trips subsequent to the July 29 sailing, and had not been entered for cleaning.

Relatives said Mrs. Moeze carried a large sum of money when she boarded the vessel but this was not found in the stateroom.

BERN, Aug. 15.—The Swiss high command announced today that hereafter Swiss anti-aircraft batteries would fire on foreign war planes violating Swiss territory.

Yesterday the Swiss reported foreign planes had flown over Switzerland and indicated that they were British planes on the way to bomb northern Italy.

Ravenna Arsenal Planned By Army

RAVENNA, Aug. 15. — The government is planning a vast munitions assembly plant on 20,000 acres of farm land adjacent to this Portage county city, it was learned today.

Three-fourths of the area was believed already under option by the war department and in Washington Major A. Robert Ginsburgh of the judge advocate general's department agreed "there is something in the air."

Shell casings and powder would be shipped from other government plants for assembly here, an informed source said. The size of the project, it was explained, is due to necessity of wide separation of various buildings to comprise the project.

This source said there was nothing to reports that the new layout would provide a base for army airplanes to protect the Akron-Cleveland-Youngstown-Pittsburgh industrial section.

objectives indicated they were following their familiar tactics in efforts to establish the conditions for invasion.

The German communique reported widespread attacks yesterday on British troop concentrations in the southeast, particularly at the big camp of Aldershot, airports, armament works at Worcester and at Salisbury, north of Portsmouth, an electric transformer between Brighton on the south coast of Lewes seven miles away, and port facilities on the south coast.

The systematic search for parachutists was touched off by the finding of three score German silk parachutes, 17 of them in one place, two of which were folded.

Although no parachutists had been found, the discovery of 17 in one place seemed to preclude the possibility they had been used by aviators shot down in yesterday's Midlands air raids.

There was the possibility that empty parachutes had been dropped as a deliberate scare so Britains would be taken off their guard when an actual parachute invasion is attempted.

Eleven German airmen were reported captured in the Midlands.

Practice On Bagpipes.
Rumors that German troops in Norway had been rehearsing with bagpipes and had collected Scottish kilts as well as British uniforms for trick landings heightened watchfulness.

Stray planes only were reported during the night over Wales and southwest England and open country in east Scotland. The bomber over Scotland was shot down.

In contrast to recent nights, no night bombings were reported.

In the war at sea, meanwhile, a German submarine sank the 16,923-ton armed merchant cruiser Transylvania, once a West Indies cruise ship operating out of New York.

The admiralty said the sinking occurred somewhere in the Atlantic. Between 30 and 40 sailors were believed lost but more than 300 officers and men were landed at a west coast port.

UNAMERICANISM HIT BY SOLO

Would Withhold Funds
From Schools Where
Activities Exist

NELSONVILLE, Aug. 15.—State Sen. H. T. Phillips of Athens wants the legislature to withhold funds from state-supported colleges and universities which allow "un-American and subversive activities."

Cutting off the flow of state money would be the quickest way to halt such activities at the schools, Dr. Phillips told the Nelsonville Rotary club.

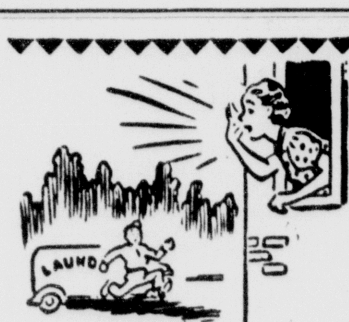

"Whenever it can be shown to the satisfaction of constituted authority that such subversive acts are knowingly permitted by the school administration, all financial support by the state should be immediately withheld until such abuses are corrected," he declared.

Recently The Athens Messenger assailed the Ohio university administration editorially about "Communist forces allowed by the administration to run rampant on the campus."

The Messenger's criticism was prompted by an editorial in the Ohio University Post, student paper, opposing passage of the Burke-Wadsworth compulsory military training bill. Robert L. Wertman, Post editor, challenged anyone to prove radical forces were at work on the campus.

WILLKIE OFF TO INDIANA TODAY

Expected to Disclose Conscription Views In Address Saturday

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 15.—Wendell L. Willkie will fly late today to Indiana where, in his acceptance address Saturday, he is expected to disclose for the first time his views on military conscription.

The Republican nominee arranged to address a crowd at the Kansas City airport (about 5:35 p. m. EST) during a brief stop. His chartered plane was scheduled to arrive in Indianapolis at about 9 p. m. (EST) and he then will motor to Rushville, Ind., the home town of Mrs. Willkie.

Covers General Issues

The acceptance address which Willkie will deliver Saturday at Elwood, Ind., his own home town, probably will cover the general range of campaign issues, as well as conscription. He gave the address a last minute going over yesterday and sent it to the printer.

On the eve of his departure from his vacation hotel, Willkie renewed his demand that the Democratic national committee return funds paid for advertising in party campaign books and suggested creation of "an impartial board" to enforce election laws.

The nominee said at his press conference he believed the question of "machine political control" would be a major one in the presidential campaign. Then, in response to questions, he named foreign policy and national defense as the two top issues.

Aid to Great Britain short of war and a demand for a revitalization of defense were understood to be among the candidate's approaches to those two questions.

Defense and Production

Willkie was expected to emphasize particularly his belief that the problem of national defense is intertwined with that of industrial production.

While the candidate has given no public statement of his stand on conscription, some of his callers have indicated he would approve the idea.

Willkie reported yesterday that Gen. Hugh Johnson, who favors conscription, had been one of his "particular advisers" in the preparation of his acceptance address. Other advisers included L. J. Tabor, national grange master.

Actress Is Bride

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Aug. 15.—Screen Director Wesley Ruggles, 51, and Marcella Rugez, 29, were married last night by Justice George E. Marshall at a hotel.

The ceremony was witnessed by Charles Ruggles, actor-brother of the groom, and Dave Epstein, screen writer and agent.

Mrs. Rugez is a French stage and film actress. Ruggles is a former husband of Actress Arline Judge.

Draws Stiff Fine

LISBON, Aug. 15.—Charles Amon, 23, of Hanoverton, pleaded guilty before Justice M. K. Zimmerman last night to a charge of petty larceny and was fined $100 and costs.

Amon was held in connection with the theft of iron fixtures at the old Wild Duck school in West township, abandoned in 1938.

DEATHS

MRS. FRED STIFFLER

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Edith Williams Stiffler, wife of Fred W. Stiffler, yesterday morning at her home on E. Judson ave., Youngstown.

Mrs. Stiffler's husband was formerly a Salem resident.

Surviving are the husband; two sons, Frederick of Youngstown and Richard of Buffalo; her mother and several sisters and brothers.

Funeral service will be held at 1:30 p. m. Friday at the Davidson-Bennett funeral home on Market st., Youngstown. Friends may call at the funeral home tonight.

L. W. ATKINSON RITES

Funeral service will be held at 2 p. m. Friday at the Damascus Methodist church for Leslie W. Atkinson of Damascus who died Tuesday evening at his home. Friends may call from 7 to 9 tonight at the family residence.

Draws $100 Fine

SEBRING, Aug. 15.—Thomas Campbell of Goshen township pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery on his wife when arraigned before Mayor L. A. Bandy yesterday, and was fined $100 and costs.

Permit Fishing

COLUMBUS, Aug. 15.—The Ohio conservation commission has announced fishing will be permitted, starting Sept. 1, in Lake Hop, Vinton county; Senecaville dam lake, Noble county and Leesville reservoir in the Muskingum watershed.

Vote On Bonds

COLUMBUS, Aug. 15.—A $339,000 bond issue for a new grade and high school building will be submitted to voters of Huron township in Erie county Nov. 5 following authorization by the state board of tax appeals.

Cudahy Not Rebuked For London Remarks

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—John Cudahy, ambassador to Belgium, has been told by President Roosevelt that there was no intention to reprimand him for his recent statements in London on conditions in German-occupied Belgium.

After a talk with the President yesterday, Cudahy said he had been authorized to say that he received "no rebuke and none was intended."

Summer Welles, acting secretary of state, who said last week that Cudahy had violated "standing instructions" of the state department in permitting the London interview, announced, after the ambassador had reported to him that the incident was closed and that no rebuke had been administered.

Welles said Cudahy told him that some press accounts of his London interview had misquoted him in many important particulars.

"Flying Blind" by VERA BROWN

SYNOPSIS

Tex Almes, happy-go-lucky, daredevil pilot, wins the main event of the national air race in which his friend, Marvin Stone, is killed. It was a trying ordeal for the young widow, Elsie Stone, but Tex's wife, Judith, stands by to lend all possible aid. Judith wishes Tex were on hand to help, but he is celebrating with his buddies. Instead, it is Michael Dudley, young airlines general manager, who is the friend in need. He arranges for Elsie to stay at the home of his friends, the Duttons, where she will have every comfort. Judith goes with her. As Michael leaves for the fliers' banquet, Judith asks him to let Tex know where she is, but, after it is over, it is Michael who returns to ascertain how they are faring—not Tex. The latter sends a message to his wife that he will see her in the morning as they are giving him a big party that night. When Judith learns it is Sonia Winthrop, wealthy young aviatrix, who is fettering Tex, she is disturbed because of recent rumors linking "Sonny" with Tex. Later, when meeting Judith, Mrs. Lydia Dutton decided that "Sonny" would meet her match in trying to win Tex.

CHAPTER SEVEN

Judith's shining black hair fanned out on her white cheeks charmingly. She had on no make-up, but her straight black brows made her deep blue eyes startling.

All in all, Lydia Dutton decided she liked this "wife" very much indeed; she didn't like many wives, she admitted freely. Especially her own!

All this scrutiny was missed by Judith. She was too intent on what the day before her would bring.

"Mrs. Stone is suffering badly from shock. I must make some plans for her. She's totally incapable of doing it herself. I just got this," Judith handed Mrs. Dutton the wire which she had in her pocket.

"Bring her here by all means. Of course, you'll go to meet her?"

"I suppose I should."

"You probably don't like to leave Mrs. Stone. I'd stay with her gladly, but a stranger would not be much help to her, I'm afraid."

Judith nodded. "That is what has been so difficult. I hadn't met Marvin's wife myself until we arrived Wednesday. She's all alone!"

"Yes, my car will be ready for you at 11:00. You ought to leave by then to meet the train."

"I can't let you do that, Mrs. Dutton."

"Of course, you can. Your husband is a great hero to my children. I met him last night, by the way, and he's charming."

Judith's heart contracted. At Sonia's parting, she knew!

He promised to autograph their movie airplanes. Mr. Almes said he'd be over this morning. Then as an afterthought: "There are two friends of Mr. Stone downstairs, Davis and Holt."

Of course, Lee Holt would come. And it must be Lem Davis, Tex's mechanic. He'd worked with Marvin Stone in the old St. Louis days.

"It might do her good to see them," Judith hesitated.

Elsie tried to smile when she heard Lem and Lee were there. The maid was just leaving with Judith's dress when the two boys came into the sitting room. Both of them were ill at ease, afraid they'd done the wrong thing.

"I've known you were in such a swell place, we wouldn't have come!"

"You were darlings to come. It's been pretty awful," said Judith.

Lee nodded glumly. "I know."

Lem added heavily: "I never thought Marv would go out that way!" He cleared his throat. "Poor guy! He'd worked like a wiz on wing construction."

Lee shoved his hands into his pockets. "At least, it didn't happen on the home pylon! She'd have seen it all!"

When Elsie came out to them she cried on Lem's shoulder, but she was less hysterical. Judith felt it had done her good. The three of them talked together while Judith tried to go to the train. Elsie tried to describe to her aunt, Judith, the I'll have her paged if I miss her," Judith promised. "Don't you worry."

"I'm not the one to be pitied, Hugh," said Judith.

Lem offered to wait with Elsie until Judith and Mrs. Royce came back. That seemed to solve that difficult problem.

Watching the clock, Judith stalled, hoping against hope that Tex could come before she had to leave. Finally she gave up. Kissed Elsie goodbye. Lee promised to make some necessary telephone calls and he followed Judith out into the hall when she left.

"What about money?" I don't think he had any more than enough to pay his hotel bill and get back home."

"We'll manage some way. Tex will pay the hotel bill."

"We fellows can dig up the funeral expenses, I guess."

How real they were! Judith's heart was warmed. On the trip down she chided herself. Tex would be afraid to face Elsie. He was like that. Besides he had loved Marvin. Judith knew how Tex hated scenes. How well she knew! Marvin had been closer to Tex than any other man. I mustn't be unfair, she concluded.

So Judith argued with herself. It was comfortable leaning back in the fine limousine. A beautiful day, too. Perfect flying weather, and warmer than yesterday. Yesterday? It seemed weeks away. Her troubled thoughts gave her little peace.

Of course, Tex had celebrated last night. Not that she blamed him. He was a new national hero. She knew how much the big race meant to him. She wished she'd started earlier so that she could have stopped off at the hotel. But it was too late now.

At the station she found the train was half an hour late. She could have seen Tex. As she stood there uncertain, she heard somebody call her name. It was Hugh Lanning.

"Don't tell me I'm to have the good luck to find you going with me to New York?"

"The answer is, no. If you call that luck, I wouldn't be much of a traveling companion today."

"I would be 'yes' with me any time," Lanning held her hand a moment, saw the dark smudges under her eyes. "You must have had a bad time of it."

"I'm not the one to be pitied, Hugh."

"I know. Tough break! But you know the flying game. How's his wife?"

"You can imagine."
